[Note: there is a 4 strap minimum purchase requirement.]

Which Model Chair Do You Have?

Since we began offering our belts, we have come to learn that there are generally 3 different models of the Barcelona Chair made over the past 60+ years. The strap requirements differ for each model. So double check your chair model before ordering to ensure you order the correct size belt.

- Knoll Barcelona Chairs: First, of course, are the the Knoll brand Barcelona Chairs which uses screws (on the older models) or rivets (on the newer models) to attach the straps. There are 17 straps per chair and 7 straps on the ottoman. The Standard 30 inch straps will fit both the back and seat cushions. These straps are 1.5 inches wide. You will need to punch your own holes and cut off extra length of the straps. Go to our other product for this strap: Barcelona Chair Replacement Straps
- Barcelona Chairs: Next, there are the replicas from Italy and China which generally use rivets to attach the straps to the frame. There are 17 straps per chair and 7 straps on the ottoman. The Standard 30 inch straps will fit both the back and seat cushions. These straps are 1.5 inches wide. You will need to punch your own holes and cut off extra length of the straps. Go to our other product for this strap: Barcelona Chair Replacement Straps
- Argentina Style Barcelona Chairs: And finally, there is a style of chair which we call the "Argentina Style", which were made in the 1960s through 1970s (more or less). These models have bolt together frames and have straps that wrap around the frame and are sewn or riveted together at each end to form a loop. You will need 15 straps per chair if you are keeping your current cushions. When you order the Argentina Style straps, we will make the straps with the loops on the ends so that you can unbolt the frame and install the belts. Note: if you have an Argentina Style chair frame and are purchasing a set of our replacement cushions, you will need to purchase 17 of the regular Barcelona Replacement belts: [Barcelona Chair Replacement Straps.

These Argentina Style straps are genuine "belt-grade" cowhide straps that measure 30 x 1.75 inches x 5/32 inches thick (approximately). They are a raw/neutral color, smooth on one side and rough on the other. We have them professionally dyed to match the leather color that you can specify, either to match one of our colors or match a leather piece you send us. The cost of the dyeing is an additional dye color match fee of $100 per strap order, whether you select one of our standard colors or would like us match your current belts or cushions.
